

Life Skills Posters

Twenty-one positive character traits or virtues with short definitions and images capturing the essence of each:

- Caring
- Common Sense
- Cooperation
- Courage
- Curiosity
- Effort
- Flexibility
- Friendship
- Generosity
- Humility
- Initiative
- Integrity
- Organization
- Patience
- Perseverance
- Pride
- Problem Solving
- Punctuality
- Resourcefulness
- Responsibility
- Sense of Humor

Created for a Seventh-day Adventist elementary classroom in North America by Kathryn Hickerson.

Caring

To think about the feelings, concerns, and worries of others.

Common Sense

Ordinary - good judgment that people have without being taught.

Cooperation

The act or process of working or acting together.

Courage

The quality that makes a person able to face danger or difficulty bravely.

Curiosity

A desire to know or learn something unusual, strange, or rare.

Effort

The use of physical or mental energy to do something.

Flexibility

Ability to bend, change, or adapt to suit new conditions.

Friendship

The feeling of warmth toward another person.

Generosity

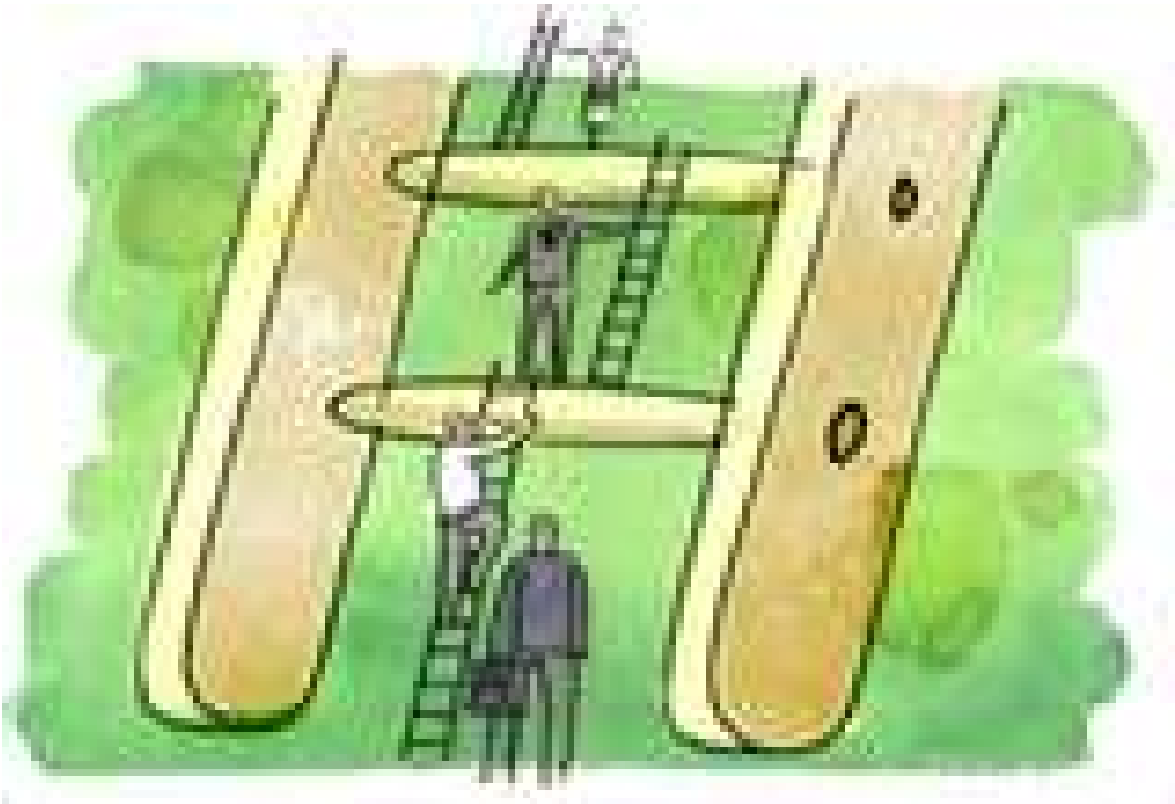

The quality of being willing to give or share unselfishly.

Humility

Thinking or speaking about others before self.

Initiative

The ability to begin or carry out a task or a plan to success.

Integrity

Complete honesty.

Organization

A way in which materials are put together or arranged.

Patience

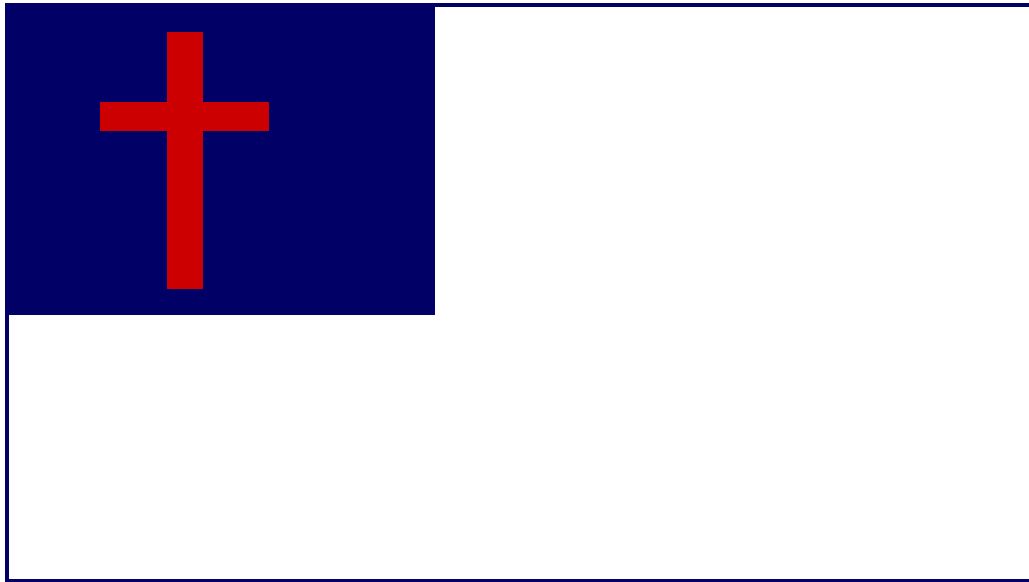

Being able to tolerate trouble, hardship, annoyance, or delay without complaining.

Perseverance

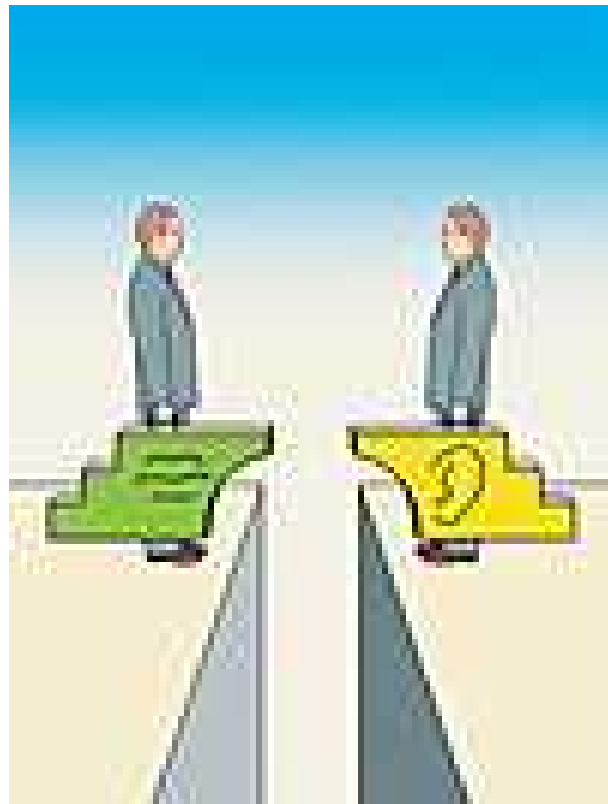

To continue to try to do something, despite obstacles or difficulties.

Pride

A sense of one's own dignity or worth
as a child of God

Problem Solving

Finding an answer or solution to a question or situation that is difficult.

Punctuality

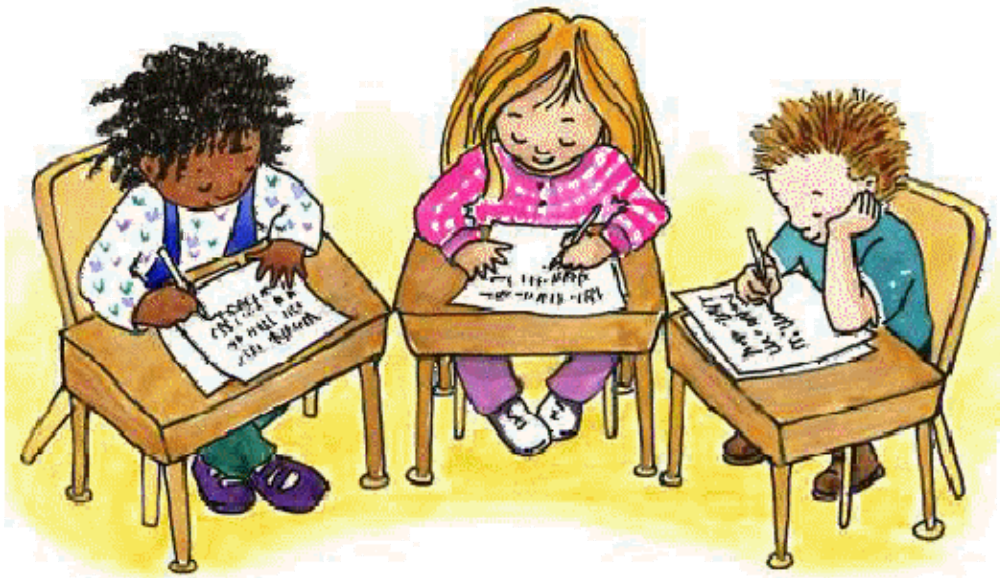

Acting, providing materials, or arriving on time.

Resourcefulness

Using what is available to benefit a current need.

Responsibility

Taking duty and obligation seriously.

Sense of Humor

The ability to see and enjoy what is comical or funny.