CORRECTIONS

The caption under the photo on page 33 in the April-May 1997 issue of the JOURNAL should have indicated that Christopher Columbus claimed Trinidad for Spain in 1498, and it became a British possession in 1797. The Dutch settled Tobago in 1632, and several colonial powers fought for possession of the island until 1814, when the British took control of it. In 1888, the two islands became one colony under British rule.

In the Summer 1997 issue, a bar graph referred to as Chart A in the first column of page 34 was inadvertently omitted from Dallas Kindopp's article, “Does SDA Higher Education Cost Too Much?” The correct Chart A, entitled “Consumer Price Index, Higher Education Price Index, and Tuition Charges for All U.S. Institutions, 1970-1992,” is shown below. A second mention of Chart A, in column 2 on page 34, actually refers to the bar graph on page 35, “Function Increase in Cost Per Credit Hour in Constant 1992 Dollars.” This should be relabeled Chart B.
