Please answer these questions honestly and completely so that your teacher can tailor our class discussion around your questions and convictions.

1. Whose are the most influential voices shaping you concepts of sexuality?
2. What do you think the purpose/s of sex is/are?
3. How many messages about sex do you think the average teenager receives every day? Do you feel saturated by a culture obsessed with sexuality?
4. What do you think media's main message about sex is? Do you feel like they have an agenda or not? How influenced do you think you are by the picture they present? Do you feel their picture is true and complete?
5. On a scale of 1-10, how much pressure do you feel that people your age have regarding being sexually active? Do you feel that level of pressure from your peers? If not, why do you think it's different?

6. Would you consent to hear advice from your parents about managing your sexuality? Where else do you feel comfortable going for advice on this topic?

7. How about God's advice? Would you find that helpful or...constricting?

8. Why do you think that God seems concerned about limiting sexual intimacy to married couples?

9. Where do you believe the borders of physical intimacy should stop before you're married? Or should there be physical borders? Where do you believe the line between having a good time and retaining your purity is?

10. What do you stand to lose by not being sexually active now? What do you stand to gain?

11. What are the costs (physical, emotional, spiritual, social) of sexual activity outside of marriage?

12. What are you most curious about discussing or having answered about sex within the context of this class?
