

circle
circle.adventist.org

eNews

September 2010

NAD Education Superintendents, Associates, and Administrative Assistants,

Thank you for responding with master teacher recommendations, and for passing on pertinent sections to educators in your conference.

Master Teacher Honorariums

Thank you to 9 superintendents who shared 61 teacher names which I contacted through the summer. Ten great teachers have (or will soon have) their contributions online. 30 honorariums are still available for excellent lessons, units, worships, and other excellent Adventist teacher-created resources. Participants review a CIRCLE resource category and polish 3-5 excellent resources they've already created. Visit <http://circle.adventist.org/services/info/features.phtml> to see teacher submissions this summer (among other great links). Learn more at: <http://circle.adventist.org/files/ads/MasterTeachersContract2010.pdf>

MORE RECOMMENDATIONS ARE REQUESTED FROM SUPERINTENDENTS, especially from conferences that did not respond in Spring 2010. We'll continue this project through this school year, working flexibly with recommended master teachers who are interested. Email master teacher recommendations to glynisb@andrews.edu (including name, email, grade level, noted specialization or resource).

Posters to Share

Download and print new 8.5x11 posters to promote:

- CIRCLE - <http://circle.adventist.org/files/ads/CIRCLEposterFall2010.pdf>
- Spiritual Resources for Adventist Teachers - <http://circle.adventist.org/files/ads/nadspiritualposter2010.pdf>

Suggested ways to use these posters:

- Print copies to share with all teachers attending your next in-service training
- Forward to principals to display copies on a school bulletin board or give to each teacher
- Paste links into your next newsletter direct to all teachers

Adventist Education Research

An extensive search of publications and online databases and many emails with Adventist colleges and universities around the globe bring you more than 500 links to research on some aspect of Adventist education all in one place. Annotated topical bibliographies and the full Endnotes library will save Adventist education researchers and decision makers time. Start exploring at http://circle.adventist.org/browse/?browse_node=431

FREE Banner Ads

New promotion opportunity! Schools can gain a free banner advertisement linking from CIRCLE to their school website by sharing 3+ resources or a school photo that makes CIRCLE's home page. Learn more at <http://circle.adventist.org/services/promote/>

Add CIRCLE to eLists

If you email resource recommendations to teachers, please include glynisb@andrews.edu on the email list. Several superintendents did this last year – without any extra time on their part, their reviews and recommendations are benefitting Adventist educators globally through CIRCLE (where appropriate, not all are entered).

Glynis

Glynis Bradfield, CIRCLE Director
Andrews University, Berrien Springs, MI, USA
ph: 269.471.3432 | fx: 269.471.6540
em: glynisb@andrews.edu
web: circle.adventist.org