Christmas Readers Theatre
Thanks to Mel Campbell for sharing three sets of Christmas readings for readers of all ages. Looking for a Bible lab project? Practice one or more readings in class. Give each student a copy. Inspire them to ask their gathered family and friends to read it together. Who can resist hearing the youngest read aloud, joining in a prepared script that takes no rehearsal? Pray for the Holy Spirit to work through this simple family-centered outreach.

There’s More – in More Languages
Set language to español (top right of any CIRCLE page) to browse 985+ Spanish entries, managed from Montemorelos University, Mexico. Or find over 630 French resources, and 618 Portuguese resources, which UNASP in Brazil will be increasing in 2011.

Share Your Resources
Your unit, powerpoint, worship, or other faith-based learning object could bless a teacher like you when shared through CIRCLE. Submit 3 or more resources and your school gets a free banner on CIRCLE, linking to your school. There’s more! Superintendent-recommended master teachers can earn a $175 honorarium for submitting their best already-created materials. And new online tools make it easier to submit resources than ever before. Give back to Adventist education, by sharing what you do best, any time of year.

May your friendship with Jesus grow closer as you lead your students to understand His grace-filled birth and life, this Christmas season,
