B. EARN A FREE BANNER AD FOR YOUR SCHOOL

If every teacher shared one unit, one webquest, one character building strategy, one website or publication aligned with Adventist philosophy of education and curriculum this summer, we'd have 5,000+ new resources to save time preparing for next year. Because we're serious about building CIRCLE's collection of teacher-designed, Journey to Excellence-aligned resources, here's an offer that will promote your school.

Each school that submits:

- 1 excellent link that is content rich, aligned with NAD curriculum*
  - +1 teacher-created resource that implements the Journey to Excellence goals*
  - +1 instructional strategy or 'what worked for me this year' idea, shared as a one page editorial*
- Earns 1 free banner ad on CIRCLE promoting your school for 1 month (ad developed at own cost, can select month)*

Email the school name and the title of the three submissions to qualify for one free banner ad. The first 50 teachers who contribute one or more resources before or during the Teacher Convention will receive a free CD packed with curriculum resources. Submit online or via email.
